Call the Director

Opening Lead out of turn is one of the most common reasons the Director is called. Make it a habit to always hold your card face down and wait for your partner to agree that it is your turn to lead.

It's never rude to call the director if an irregularity has occurred. In fact, it's rude NOT to call. One does not call the director ON the opponents. One calls the director to assess options associated with irregularities, and to do so from an unbiased perspective.

Bargara/Bundaberg Challenge

On Friday, 22 October 16 pairs from Bundaberg ventured down to Bargara for an excellent morning of Bridge. Thanks to Susie for running and organising the event and to Bargara Bridge Club for their efforts in making it such a great day. Bundaberg defeated Bargara narrowly. There were two sections – Jude Bell and Selwyn Nitschke won N/S, and Kevin Chapman and Lucy Costello won E/W in the purple section. In the blue section June Mathers and Josie Parkin from Bargara won N/S and Larry Clyde and Vic Sumner E/W also from Bargara.
